

Graduate specialist Tom joins Reed Managed Services

27th June 2007 - Tom Hanson has this week joined Reed Managed Services as Business Development Manager for outsourced graduate services.

Reed Managed Services Head of Graduate Recruitment Mark Milner comments: "I'm delighted Tom has joined the Reed team. Following the expansion of our services, with the addition of new products designed to improve the graduate recruitment process, Tom's skills and experience will be instrumental in driving our business forward."

Tom has extensive experience within graduate recruitment and was one of the first practitioners in the country to attain the Association of Graduate Recruiters' agr Standard.

Previously Sales Development Executive at GradWeb, Tom takes over from David Chernick, who now leads the expanded Background Screening service for Reed Managed Services.
